Sports Corner with Elgene

Happy holidays, sports fans.

The holiday season is now upon us. Here is a final look back at the ups and downs of this past year's Maple Leafs, Raptors and Blue Jays.

The Maple Leafs had a fairly successful 2016-2017 campaign. With a bunch of rookies, they gave the President's trophy winning Washington Capitals a serious scare in the first round of the playoffs. The highlights were 2 overtime goals by Kasperi Kapanen and Tyler Bozak in games 2 and 3. Also, Auston Matthews won the Calder trophy for rookie of the year. The best is yet to come.

The Raptors season ended in a very disappointing 4 game sweep at the hands of the Cleveland Cavaliers. However, the Raptors were able to resign Kyle Lowry and sign CJ Miles. Also, with the development of some young players and improved second unit, the Raptors are a potential threat in 2018.

The Blue Jays had a disastrous season. With key injuries to Josh Donaldson, Troy Tulowitzki and Aaron Sanchez, they were eliminated with over a month left. A far cry from the playoff runs of 2015 and 2016. Hopefully they will get back on track for the 2018 season.

Enjoy the holidays.
